

Silvan Ridge

WINERY

Silvan Ridge Early Muscat:

A unique wine with 20 years of recognition!

- Created by Joe Dobbs, winemaker
- Served at Clinton White House
- Sweet bubbly flavor profile, never out of style!

TUESDAY,
APRIL 2, 1996

A seat at the White House

Joe Dobbs, winemaker for Hinman Vineyards of Eugene, shows off the reserve label Silvan Ridge 1994 Early Muscat Semi-Sparkling wine that will be served at the Italian State Dinner at the White House tonight. Silvan Ridge is one of three wines the White House chose to be served to 180 American and Italian guests. The others are Gallo's 1993 Estate Chardonnay and Mondavi's 1990 Cabernet Sauvignon Reserve. Hinman Vineyards is located on Briggs Hill Road southwest of Eugene.

TUESDAY,
APRIL 2, 1996

The Register-Guard

BUSINESS

NYSE / 3B • MUTUAL FUNDS / 4B • WEATHER / 6B

SECTION B

CHRIS PRETSCH / The Register-Guard

Early Muscat: The Accolades Keep Coming

Editor's Choice "Off-dry, spicy and aromatic, it's a great sipping wine, with concentrated flavors of sweet orange-pekoe tea." Wine Enthusiast Oct 2014

Wine of the Week "Light, fun, frothy drink that's a party in a glass. Rating: Outstanding." Wine Press Northwest, Sep 7, 2014

Great Value "Scents of white peach and tangerine with accents of honey. Very Good. Strong Recommendation." Ultimate Wine Challenge 2014

WINE ENTHUSIAST MAGAZINE

88 POINTS
Editors' Choice

SILVAN RIDGE WINERY
2013 EARLY MUSCAT
WILLAMETTE VALLEY

ULTIMATE-BEVERAGE.COM

87 Points
Very Good
Strong Recommendation